

Summary

Circulation across the six branches grew for the fifth consecutive quarter. The evening opening pilot at the Dockside branch drew steady after-work traffic, and the tool-lending shelf — a member suggestion — proved the quarter's most borrowed collection per item held.

Highlights

- Total loans rose 9% year over year, led by audiobooks and children's titles.
- The seed library returned for spring with 44 varieties, all donated locally.
- Wi-Fi sessions passed 60,000, with a median visit of 41 minutes.

Next quarter

The bookmobile route adds two Saturday stops in June. Renovation of the Old Mill reading room begins in May; loans will continue from the temporary desk in the annex.

Board note: the annual budget hearing moves to June 11. Branch managers should file space requests by May 23.
